2. "Although I've been good at my work I think I want to do something more fulfilling now"
3. "I have had a really interesting and varied work life but I now want to specialise in something that is really me".
4. "I used to get out of bed with a spring in my step but now I really feel like I am dragging myself through the day."
5. "I've been made redundant and I'm looking forward to taking time out but I need someone to help me with planning my future"
6. "I know what I want to do next but I don't think I am presenting myself in the best possible way"

"Career Excellence was a thought provoking and insightful day that confirmed my career plans, but also gave me increased self awareness of what I am looking for, and what is important to me. - Highly recommended."

- Steve Norton, Recruitment & Talent Manger, Atos Consulting UK

"Going to the Career Excellence day helped solidify my thoughts that I had to change something about my job - right now! It was really invigorating to be in a room full of people who were taking positive steps to manage their career, and having them as a network afterwards has made me feel really supported."

- Kristin Delaney, Marketing & Business Development Officer and MBA student

"After attending Career Excellence, I now have some brilliant direction in life and can now lay down some real plans, which has freed up all the thoughts running around inside my head."

- Alan Helps, Director

So You Need To Make A Change In Your Career?

Changing direction or changing jobs; this is the programme for you. These days few of us have a job for life, so at some point in we are likely to need to make a change. The motivation for the change and the aspect of our work that needs to be changed can vary enormously and can be the reason why we put off making decisions or taking action in the area of our career. Career Excellence is a programme that has been developed over 7 years and is specifically aimed at assisting you to plan, build and be passionate about your career.

Your Flexible Niche of Excellence

As the world becomes more inter-connected, we are increasingly competing in an international market place. This is challenging us all to lead more flexible careers where we play to our unique strengths and passions. Becoming "excellent" in areas where we play to these strengths makes sense. Career Excellence is designed to help you discover your unique niche; you will be able to express this niche in a variety of authentic ways. Your personal career plan will be responsive to the changing needs of the marketplace in a way that still has integrity, and is both lucrative and fulfilling.

Building Confidence and Taking Powerful Action

Taking a step into the unknown requires courage and confidence. Clients find that the Career Excellence programme helps them to build courage and confidence and to make powerful changes that are aligned to their internal beliefs and values. This is done by: pin-pointing where change is needed; creating short, medium and long term action plans; and presenting these plans and intentions authentically.
